

The Strength to Move YouSM

Highly Qualified Leadership Team

Stacy Sommers After beginning his real estate career in 1995 and with over 400 transactions to his name, Stacy Sommers is no stranger to the field of real estate. He has a genuine enthusiasm for the industry. "I love real estate," he says. "I can't believe I get paid to do this!" With his optimistic approach and mild mannered personality, it is no wonder Stacy has been sought out by new and veteran agents alike for real estate career guidance.

Cheryl Acker Cheryl decided to get her license in 1996 "just for fun." She had a full-time job but thought real estate would provide her some extra money to spend for vacations. After eighteen months in real estate, she quit her job and has been enjoying real estate full-time ever since. She enjoys helping new and experienced agents realize their goals through encouragement, training, and business planning. Cheryl has said, "Our agents are now my clients, my goal is to make sure they have the tools they need in order to achieve success."

Mike Thevenin Mike Thevenin gets personal with his agents. He is genuinely concerned about people. He is a perpetually "up" person who loves life and has a strong ability to enjoy relationships with all kinds of people. And they love him back. Since 1973, Big Mike (as he has been known to just about everyone for 40 years) has helped people live their real estate dreams.

Branden Kirk Branden began his real estate career right here at @Home three years ago with the encouragement of his father-in-law and brother-in-law, both agents with @Home. He found the company's innovation and commission structure appealing and left his previous career working for a new homes builder for greener pastures.

Dean Marriott Dean Marriott's interest in real estate began in 1971 when he purchased the first of his rental properties, a duplex; 10 years later he became a Realtor. Dean sees his job as providing motivation and encouragement to the agents he works with; to make sure they have the all the assistance and information they need.

Visit Our Website
www.HomeRealty.com